All the candles that use normal batteries are supplied "WITH" Batteries.

We would like to remind customers that the real wax candles need to be handled with care as the wax can be easily marked (like a real candle) it is important to understand this as damage will be the responsibility of the hirer.

Notes:

Any damaged , or lost candles will be charged at our web shop price

If you decide to make your own arrangements for return of the candles after the event , it is important to ensure that the candles are packed in the packaging that the candles arrived in and the outer carton is sealed with tape.

we recommend that customers use a courier system or if using the Post office to ensure that the parcel is sent using special delivery and a signature request is made for proof of return we also advise customer to cover the return parcel with Insurance.
